

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Shelby County Health Department

Safety is NO Accident:
Live Injury-Free
National Public Health Week
April 4-10, 2011 • www.nphw.org

Public Health Safety Fair

Friday, April 8th

160 North Main Plaza

11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

Build an emergency preparedness kit!

Start building an emergency kit to stay safe before, during and after a disaster.

Protect your muscles from strain during exercise.

Taking actions to reduce pollution can limit Code Orange days and the risk of lung inflammation.

Immunizations are necessary for children and adults of all ages. Pick up an immunization schedule to see what vaccinations you need.

Know how to keep food safe while picnicking to prevent the spread of food borne illnesses.

FREE GIVEAWAYS!!

Learn how to protect your neighborhood from the spread of diseases carried by mosquitoes and rodents.